

Adam Michael Pearlman

<http://www.adampearlman.com/resume>

adam@adampearlman.com

(617) 549-6812

Experience

Freelance Internet Development, since 1999

- Experience working with clients across many fields
- Collaborated closely with clients and teams to develop ideas and plan sites
- Developed Information Architecture and User Experience Design
- Produced Graphic Designs and graphical resources
- Implemented dynamic websites relying on Object Oriented JavaScript and utilizing libraries such as prototype, scriptaculous, and JQuery
- Built web 2.0 applications using advanced techniques such as AJAX and dHTML
- Developed dynamic data driven sites using PHP, JSP, .Net
- Designed and built databases using MySQL

IntraLinks, Inc., 10/03 – 12/08

Boston, MA

User Experience Designer 10/06 – 10/08

- Developed application design requirements for several vertical markets by evaluating client needs with business analysts
- Delivered visual and interaction requirements to developers and responded to impromptu design challenges
- Worked with technical writers to generate development specifications, online help, and training documentation

Lead User Interface Developer 10/03 – 10/06

- Promoted to Lead UI Developer (10/05), additional responsibilities included requirements analysis, resource planning, and career development
- Directed client-side development of UI for Web 2.0 / AJAX enabled application built on Java Server Faces (JSF) and Adobe Flex
- Collaborated with design team and business analysts to design and build new functionality
- Created unique user interaction elements using dHTML and Object Oriented JavaScript
- Maintained existing front end of complex J2EE, Struts based application

Xchange, Inc.

Boston, MA

User Interface Engineer 4/00 – 7/01

- Designed and developed a browser-based user interface for an application that was previously windows-based using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript
- Authored dynamic content driven pages based on HTML designs using XML and XSLT
- Created graphics for use in multiple products using Adobe PhotoShop

Molecular • Formerly TVisions, Inc.

Cambridge, MA

Web Architect 1/98 – 6/99

- Created and maintained multiple web sites and Internet applications using HTML, JavaScript (dHTML), and PERL (cgi)
- Worked closely with clients to develop Information Architecture, prepare and implement content
- Implemented Graphic Design and developed user interfaces, by collaborating closely with design team and conducting quality assurance testing to assure that original designs were achieved

Education

The State University of New York at Buffalo

Bachelor of Arts in Communication and Psychology 1996

References

Dean Hurley

Sr. Product Designer

me@deanhurley.com

(908) 723-3893

Dean was my manager while on the User Experience team at IntraLinks.

Henry Cipolla

CTO - Localytics

henry@localytics.com

(617) 388-8724

I built a complex JavaScript driven web application for Henry at Localytics.

Dr. Robert Bargar & Elinor Nelson

Founders, College Food Dish

nelsonbargar@msn.com

(617) 527-5225

I built the website collegefooddish.com for Bob & Ellie.